TIME OF DAY

Choose a time when attendees will have plenty of time to prepare, they'll not have half a mind on their end of day or weekly deadlines, missed deadlines from the previous week or their lunch, enabling creativity, decision making and productivity to flourish. Early afternoons on Tuesdays are considered to be the optimum time.

LEADER

CLEAR OBJECTIVES

Ensure you know what you're aiming for and why; and exactly how you plan to achieve this to maintain energy and momentum for each and every project.

BEGIN AND END ON TIME

It's the easiest way to build trust and retain productivity. It's also beneficial to know how much the group cost of that meeting is to the business to ensure no time is wasted.
